CAREER TIPS

WHAT IS SKILL?

A skill is the ability to perform a task in a competent manner within a prescribed span, energy, or both. Skills can be classified as general and specific. For example, in the domain of work, some general skills consists of time management, teamwork, leadership, self-motivation etc. Whereas specific skills are required only for a particular job. Skill requires certain environmental stimuli and situations to assess the level of skill being shown and used.

Types of Skills:

1. Functional Skills: In these skills, the actions are taken to perform a task. They are transferable to different work. They are based on ability and aptitude. They denote the functions like to organize, to promote, to analyze etc.
2. Personal Traits Skills: It contributes personal traits or attitudes such as patience, diplomacy, result-orientation and independence to perform work. It is developed in childhood and through life experience.
3. Knowledge Based Skills: These skills can be acquired through education, training and on the job experience. They help to perform a particular task. The person should have the knowledge of specific subjects, procedures etc.
4. Labour Skills: Skilled workers are active, energetic and economically productive. They are of great demand in abroad due to their caliber, potential and skills.
5. Life Skills: An ability and capacity acquired through deliberate, systematic, and sustained effort to smoothly and adaptively carryout complex activities involving ideas (cognitive skills), things (technical skills), and/or people (interpersonal skills).
6. People Skills: It is the ability to communicate effectively with people in a friendly way, especially in business. It includes both social and psychological skills. People skills means to understand ourselves and to moderate our responses, to talk effectively and empathize accurately and to build relationships of trust, respect and productive interactions.

7. Social Skills: It is any sort of skill which facilitates interaction and communication with others. In social skills, social rules and relations are created, communicated and changed in verbal and nonverbal ways.
8. Soft Skills: The combination of interpersonal skills, social skills, communication skills, character traits, attitudes, career attributes and emotional Intelligence Quotient (EQ) among others.
9. Hard Skills: Hard skills are any skills relating to a specific task or situation.

Skill development has been considered one of the critical aspect for job creation in India. India has unique demographic advantage with more than 60% of the population is in young age group. But in order to get dividend from such large work force, employability has to be improved.

As per current statistics only 10% of the fresh graduates are employable and rest of the 90% lack skills required for eligible to be hired by corporate. India's GDP is growing at great rate of around 6-8% but job creation is not catching up with it.

WHAT ARE THE ADVANTAGES OF SKILL DEVELOPMENT IN INDIA?

- Increase in proficiency
- Grow skill sets
- Achieve task in less time with more results
- Increase in performance level.
